ENTRY

- Access to the VIP Valet powered by Ken Ganley Companies will begin 2 hours prior to kickoff at the East Gate entrance.
 - Upon arrival, your car will go through a K9 Security check. Security will instruct you to turn off your engine while the K9 team performs the sweep.
 - Please make sure to have your VIP Valet powered by Ken Ganley Companies parking pass pulled up in your Cleveland Browns Mobile App prior to arrival at the East Garage Gate of the Stadium.
- » In order to avoid network issues, please be sure to utilize the Apple Wallet or Google Pay function on your phone.

EXIT

- Within 90 minutes after the conclusion of the game, you must retrieve your keys from the VIP Valet powered by Ken Ganley lot.

To access the pickup location, please exit the stadium on the North Side and proceed down the grand staircase to the VIP Valet powered by Ken Ganley Companies lot.

GAMEDAY ROAD CLOSURES

The City of Cleveland has announced gameday road closures of East 9th and West 3rd Streets between Lakeside Avenue and Huntington Bank Field, including State Route 2 (SR 2) exits around the stadium. Rolling road closures will begin 3 hours prior to kickoff (example: for a 1 p.m. kickoff, rolling road closures will begin at 10 a.m. and end shortly after 1 p.m.). During this time, all Browns parking pass holders and guests with disability drop-offs will only be able to reach Huntington Bank Field by use of North Marginal Road from East 55th Street (Exit 175 on I-90). Please note road closure times are subject to change at the City of Cleveland's discretion.
